KELVEDON PLAYERS - NEWSLETTER July 2020

“Lockdown: The Lurgi Strikes Back!” Yes, that’s where we are at the moment so I hope you’re all bearing up and keeping healthy and sane.

ZOOM

As you all realise, we are unable to do any productions at the moment but we have carried on with our weekly zoom readings on Thursday evenings. Technology can be a blessing sometimes. For those of you who haven’t been with us for a bit, this week we will be reading, “The Verdict,” by Barry Reed. If you would like to join in, let me know.

AND PERHAPS YOU WOULD LIKE TO HAVE A GO AT THIS.....

It has been suggested before and discussed at last week’s Committee Meeting that we put performances online on YouTube. One thing that has been suggested is monologues, or perhaps you have other suggestions.

- What you must take into account is that, unless you are writing your own scripts, we would need a licence and, if you intend to change something, you will probably need permission from the author/publisher so.....
- If you have anything in mind get back to me with what you would like to do and I’ll check if we can get the licence and the permission for any changes.

Then, if everything is in order, the next thing for you to do is to film the performance and send it back to us, so that it can be sent to KPs and uploaded online.

So, guys, any ideas?

NORTH ESSEX THEATRE GUILD AWARDS 2019-20

The usual NETG Awards Evening at the Princes Theatre could not be held this year (I wonder why?), but the ceremony was filmed and, just to remind you, the two young people below received awards – didn’t they do well!

Mia Carter-Joy – JKPS – Joint Award for Best Young Actress for her part as Wendy, in Peter Pan.

James Hale – a JKP who took the part of Douglas in KPs’ Shadowlands and was awarded Best Young Actor.
